My Kids Were Both Bullied in School I won't let it happen to yours!

When my son was in first grade, he was bullied and we homeschooled for several years. That's why I wrote my first book. I grew up letting people push me around and I didn't want to see my son make my same mistakes. I wanted to give him the confidence to use his words to combat bullying and find purpose through hope and self-worth. After all, bullying is not a new thing, and it doesn't just occur between kids.

In light of recent school tragedies, from suicide to shootings on multiple campuses, there is an even greater need for my message of bully prevention through awareness, attitude, and action along with writing skills, history, and current events as students learn about "The Power of Words in Life and Literature."

My award-winning novel, Clifton Chase and the Arrow of Light, is the basis for this engaging presentation. Set in Melbourne, Florida, and in 1485 England, a bullied boy finds his voice after he rescues King Richard's nephews from the Tower of London. Friendship, bravery, and sacrifice, along with magic, adventure, and fantasy make this the perfect story for readers who enjoy Percy Jackson, Harry Potter, and The Chronicles of Narnia. Novel, ebook, audiobook, coloring book, and teacher's curriculum guide available. Grades K-12.

Book Jaimie Engle, award-winning author and national speaker to discuss:

- Cyber- and school bullying
- The differences between teasing, reprimanding, and abuse
- How not to be a victim
- Conflict vs. Bullying
- Overcoming "silent witness syndrome"
- The Power of Words and the Golden Rule

A bit about me? I write fiction where magic turns ordinary into extraordinary for those who enjoy YA books. I've been writing since I fell into Alice in Wonderland at age 7 and have won awards for several of my stories and books. I also have a pretty cool company called Wick Books(tm), which are handcrafted candles based off magical drinks from my books. When I'm not writing, I speak to kids about bullying and teach authors about marketing their books. You can learn more about me and my products at www.thewriteengle.com.
